Kiwi kids are online & connected

Interacting, sharing and communicating online is integral to their daily lives and while opportunities abound, increased time online can often lead to a greater chance of risk and challenge.

For parents, families and whānau, this can mean heightened anxiety, concern and a sense of helplessness... but it doesn't have to be.

Making connections

Join Linewize's Success Team as they unpack some of the risks, challenges and complexities young people face online.

The team of experts will provide practical tips for schools and families as they work together to support our tamariki and rangitahi navigate the exciting and complex online space.
